Free Student Day Apply by December 10, 2010

This is a special invitation for students to apply for a scholarship to attend the Annual California Unified Program Training Conference. The Unified Program covers six hazardous materials disciplines including: hazardous materials, hazardous waste, fire, above- and underground- storage tanks. Annually over 1000 professionals in the environmental protection field from a wide array of federal, state, local agencies and industry gather to learn, deliberate and network at the largest conference of this type in the nation. It is a great opportunity for students to meet and discuss careers with a diverse group of professionals and attend a very dynamic training conference.

Free Student Day is Wednesday February 2, 2011 at the Hyatt Regency Orange County, 11999 Harbor Blvd, Garden Grove, CA 92840.

The following will be provided at no cost to the participant:

- Parking
- Breakfast
- Lunch with over 1000 professionals
- Training classes in 10 different and exciting tracks
- Vendor's Reception

Please encourage your students to participate in a wide spectrum of classes being offered to current environmental and fire professionals. The application and full conference program can be found at www.calcupa.net under Conference Center 2011.

Application to attend is due from students by December 10, 2010.

If you have any questions or suggestions, please feel free to give us a call; Bill Jones, LA County Fire, conference co-chair bjones@fire.lacounty.gov
Bill Lent, San Mateo County, conference co-chair wlent@co.sanmateo.ca.us
Sheryl Baldwin, conference facilitator 530-676-0815 or Sheryl@calcupa.org

We are looking forward to building a successful future together.
